

WELCOME!

Appellate Clinic For Self-Represented Litigants:

The Clinic and its staff and volunteers are happy and excited to be able to assist you person-to-person once again.

The COVID pandemic and its dangers for all of us are not yet things of the past, however. Thus, our person-to-person consultations are subject to the following health and safety-related restrictions:

1. Masks are required inside the clinic at all times.
2. Waiting inside the Clinic's lobby or on the stair landing outside is not permitted, even with masks. If you have an appointment today, and have arrived early, please return to the atrium on the ground floor and wait there until the time scheduled for your appointment.

As always, consultations with the Appellate Clinic For Self-Represented Litigants are by appointment only every Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday.

Appointments for the Appellate Clinic For Self-Represented Litigants can be requested by going to Public Counsel's website: publiccounsel.org and clicking on the "Get Help" tab, or by calling (213) 830-7232 every Tuesday between 8:00 a.m. and 8:30 a.m. Clinic staff will notify successful and wait-listed callers by telephone or e-mail as promptly as possible.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation,
